Budapest

THE EUROPEAN YOUTH CENTRE BUDAPEST IS...

- a 6,500 m2 residential training and conference facility inaugurated in 1995
- over 100 activities annually with over 3000 participants
- a key tool in the implementation of the CoE's youth programme
- an innovative educational laboratory
- a unique centre of knowledge and best-practice on human rights education

WHY AWARENESS RAISING?

Human rights education is a fundamental human right itself

Young people's skills to participate in the promotion of human rights and democracy must be developed and nurtured - a core mission of the CoE's youth sector since its inception in 1972
