1. My motivation for becoming a member of the Equinet Executive Board:

(please explain why you would like to sit on the Equinet Executive Board)

I would like to contribute to the work of the board team and offer my skills in the international cooperation to the Equinet network. As I was leading the establishment of Slovenian equality body from the scratch, I can also offer my experiences and insights.

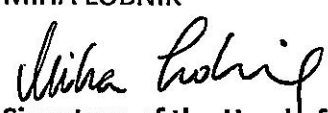

2. Additional note or other relevant information relating to your application (if any):

(any information about yourself and your achievement that you think is important for people who will have to consider the quality of your candidacy)

I have served before in the boards of international organizations (IGYLO, ILGA Europe) and have experience of working in international teams as well as organizing international events. I have worked extensively in the area of connecting different organisations and NGOs with purposes of coordinating efforts to achieve common goals.

The majority of my work experience is from the fields of human rights, minorities and discrimination prevention.

Feel free to expand text boxes as you see fit.

Date: 16. 9. 2019	Signature of the candidate: MIHA LOBNIK  Signature of the Head of the Organisation (if different)
